4 Bedroom, 4.00 Bathroom, 4,017 sqft
Residential on 5 Acres

DESERT FOOTHILLS NORTH, Cave Creek, AZ

A pristine Sonoran estate nestled on a sprawling 4.5-acre canvas of desert, this privately gated property is more than just a home; it's an invitation to craft a life of tranquility and purpose. Walk among many towering saguaros while the gentle desert breeze carries the promise of endless possibilities. The slump block Spanish home provides the centerpiece of a personal sanctuary where you can reconnect with nature or perhaps realize your dreams of artisan craftsmanship in the separate garage/workshop and/or developing a first-class equestrian facility. More than just land and architecture, this provides a rare opportunity to build a legacy where dreams take root and flourish. The home was prominently featured in Arizona Living Magazine after completion for design & quality build Gated 4.5 acres (3 lots) in Cave Creek, this 1976 exceptionally built exterior/interior 4000sf+custom Spanish-style home with garages for 6 cars and a fully powered with electrical and plumbing workshop. Pool, water feature, deck, patios, bbq, fireplaces, balconies, walk-around terraces with unique charm and gorgeous views. Numerous spectacular tall Saguaro Cactus and natural desert plants on the property. Custom made cabinets and detail work throughout including beautifully made furniture in the workshop. Note: the courtyard arch bell is over 150 years old and was specially selected from an antique shop. The style of the villa home is a mix of Mexican Colonial and Spanish Monastery design.

Built in 1976
